Homecoming 1982

The 1982 Manlius High School Homecoming was held on October 9. Even though our boys put up a good fight, the Tampico Trojans came out on top. The dance was held the following night with "The Clams" providing the entertainment. Some of the festivities that were held during the week were: egg toss, western day, favorite actor or actress, slop day, and red & black day.

The Pink Panther Strikes Again

On April 29 and 30, 1983, Manlius High School saw the arrival of the Pink Panther and Inspector Clousseau upon the stage. A dinner theater was presented the first night with a main course of shish kabobs being served by the Home Ec. Club under the supervision of Mrs. Connie Hahne. Play Director, Mrs. Elin Dumney, and her cast were responsible for a fine performance both nights which was enjoyed by all.

Honors Night
May 19, 1983

Rita Peterson was the recipient of the Outstanding Band Member Award. The Most Improved Band Member Award went to Carl Etheridge.

Cheryl Notschaele was recognized for having perfect attendance for the last four years.

The DeKalb Award went to Pete Christensen and the Outstanding Ag. Student Award was given to Sandy Lootens.

The National Honor Society inducted seven new members. In the back row they are David Anderson, Catherine Christensen, Dana Doty, Kim Frank, and Dee King. New inductees in the front row are Sandy Lootens and next year's president, Andrea Wise. Seated beside Andrea is Kathy Lane and Amy Erickson, this year's president.

Pete Christensen earned the Bausch and Lomb Science Award. Catherine Christensen earned the Math Award. Both Pete and Catherine were named as the recipients of the Lively Hornbeck Athletic Award. The History Award also went to Catherine.

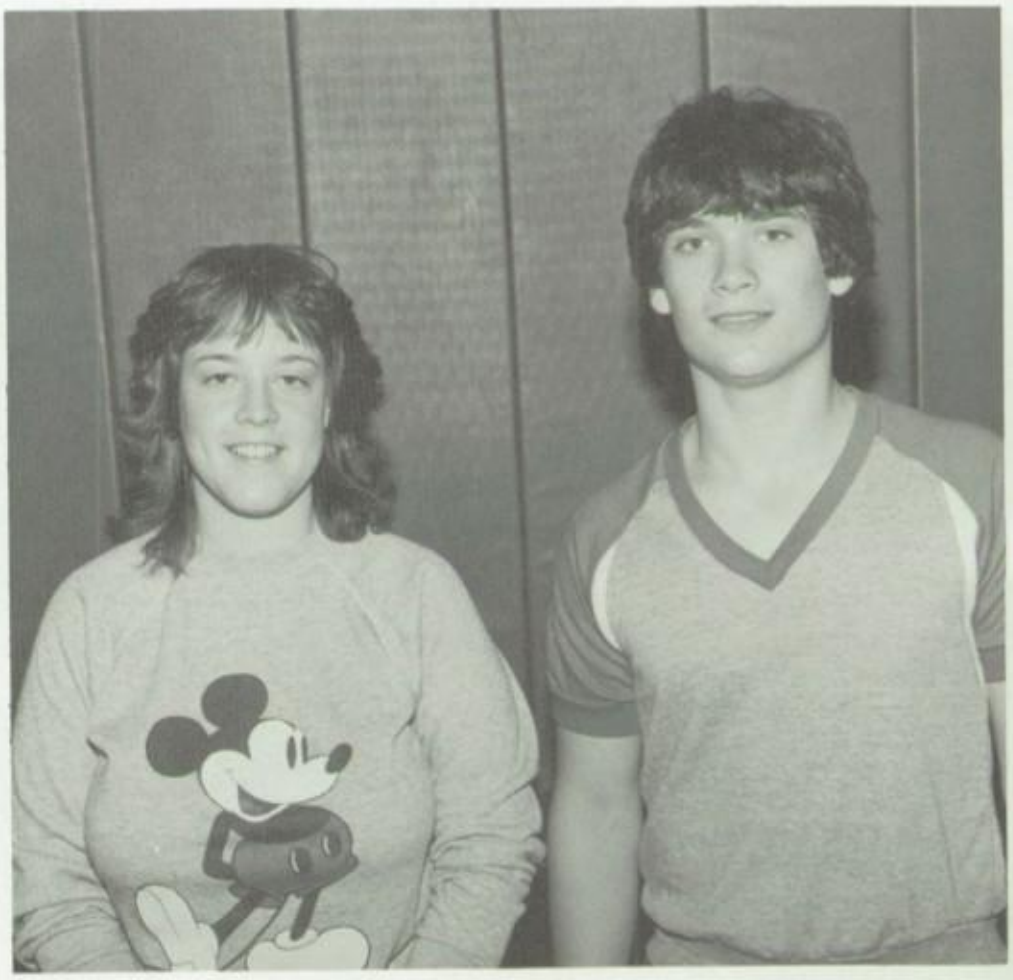
Speech Honors

Kim Cooper and Carl Etheridge received a fifth in the IHSA Regional in Humorous Duet. Kim also earned a fifth in the Ottawa Novice Tournament in Verse Reading.

Cheryl Notschaele earned a fourth in the Princeton and IHSA Tournaments in Oratorical Declamation. Mike Foy received a third in three tournaments — Princeton, Ottawa, and IHSA — in Humorous Interpretation. Michelle Foy received a sixth in the Princeton Tournament in Radio Speaking.

Sandy Lootens received several awards during the season which included a first in the IHSA Regional, a second in the Princeton Invitational, a third in the Ottawa Invitational, and a fourth in the Olympia High School Invitational. All awards were earned in Oratorical Declamation. Amy Erickson was awarded a fourth in both the Princeton and IHSA Tournaments in Verse.



Julie Burba received a fifth in the Princeton Invitational in Radio Speaking and also earned a third in both the Ottawa and IHSA Tournaments. John Daley was awarded a third in Extemporaneous Speaking in the IHSA Tournament.

Music Department

The Music Department was proud to have baritone player Michelle Foy be the recipient of two honors during the year. First, Michelle was chosen to participate in the District Band Concert held at Bradley University in Peoria which was sponsored by the Illinois Music Education Association. Also, she had her nomination accepted by a chosen committee for McDonald's All-American High School Band. Only two in Illinois are finally picked for this band and Michelle will find out the results in October of this year. Congratulations, Michelle!!

Manlius High School's Music Department, under the direction of Miss Vicky VanDan, spent many hours practicing and performing during the year. The Homecoming Parade provided the time for the debut of the band which performed while riding on a hay rack. Music was provided by the high school band at the home football and basketball games. Two public concerts by the high school, junior high, and fifth grade band were held at Christmas and again in the spring.

Choral performances were given for Music in Our Schools Week along with individual performances on another day of the Week. They also sang for the Senior Citizens at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Manlius. Grades K-4 were busy with caroling at Christmas, a spring musical, and an amateur music hour in the spring. Other organized performances consisted of the junior high band and chorus at the Bureau Valley Elementary Conference concert, the Indian Valley Conference concert for the high school band, the Illinois Grade School Music Association contest in which 47 people entered, and the Illinois High School Association contest for the high school band and chorus.

Classes

Our freshmen year started out with INITIATION!! The seniors gave us quite a workout — lipstick, baby food, chinese fire drills, and the list goes on. Looking back, it was sort of fun.

In an attempt to earn some money for the class, we raffled off a black and white television and an AM/FM radio. Thanks to all who supported us.

Our Homecoming parade float was based on the movie E.T. The title of the float read "We're Touching Victory." This unique float won third place in the float competition between classes. It was one time that we actually beat the sophomore class!!

The Sophomores were very busy this year. In the fall, we worked together to build a Homecoming float. We dared the Bradford Panthers to take the "Devil Challenge" but our float still came in last!! At the Homecoming dance, Joe Hunt and Wendy Rasmussen represented our class as attendants.

Ordering class rings was an event for which we all waited. After much thought and confusion during the ordering process, our expectations were met when the rings finally arrived.

During the year we had two successful money-making projects. A large turnout at our supper and many candy buyers from the second selling project earned the class money which will be added to the treasury for our Prom and class trip.

Our Sophomore year was enjoyable and very memorable!!

JUNIORS

Junior class officers are from top down: Dave Anderson — Secretary, Cathy Christensen — Treasurer, John Daley — Vice-President, and Andrea Wise — President.

The first big project for the "Class of 84" was candy sales. We again sold Kathryn Beich Candies which sold very well. Our next project was the careful construction of our float. We spent many hours working on it in a shed owned by Rich's Ag. It all seemed worthwhile after we received our second consecutive first place float award. Our float was entitled "We'll Cage the Panthers and Turn Them Every Which Way But Loose." Our attendants at the Homecoming celebration were Rodney "Rocket" Hewitt and Sandy Lootens.

On February 18, we held our annual fish supper which was a great success due to the secret of the batter on the fish. Right, Mr. Ricci?!!?

We then pooled all our resources to put on the Junior-Senior Prom on Friday, May 13, at Emerald Hills Country Club. Theme of the Prom this year was "We've Got Tonight." Our attendants for this gala event were Dee King and David Anderson.

All in all it was a great year in the history of the "Class of 84" which will never be forgotten.

Prophecy

(RITA) "Hello, folks! I'm Rita Peterson, and this is our game show "Alumni Update." The contestants try to prove how well they know their graduating class by guessing, from their present occupations, which classmates we are talking about. For our premiere we've chosen Amy Erickson, the world reknown novelist, straight from the RUGGED MOUNTAINS of Colorado!"
(AMY) "Hi Reet! I know this show takes up a lot of your time, but I'm glad you've still got your roots in Princeton! I noticed you still have your escort service at "Rita's Rendezvous!" It will be interesting to find out if our class succeeded in its goals to "Party With Class" and change the world!"
(RITA) "We got a good start on those goals in school! We have all gone our separate ways, but it wasn't too hard to round-up our class members. All I had to do was yell "PARTY!" The echoes of "Did somebody say 'PARTY'?" could be heard from all directions! The loudest responses came from our first two mystery classmates. We put these two together because they are co-owners of a beverage company in which the entire class has stock. The girl is now a part-time rock singer who opens for Van Halen when they're in town. She is also an astronomer who is responsible for renaming NASA to "The STAR-GAZING Club." The guy is a singer who has released remakes of "Ring of Fire" and "Johnny B. Goode." His agent suggested several stage names, but this guy says, "Sometimes they call me the Tiger Cat, sometimes they don't call me the Tiger Cat, heck, sometimes they don't call me!"
(AMY) "The two people in our class voted "Most Likely To Party 'TO THE MAX'", Julie Burba and John McReynolds!"
(RITA) "That was an easy one. This next girl is a politician who is putting her talent (if that's what you'd call it) of talking in circles to good use! She's always been popular and still has a "fine bunch of friends!"
(AMY) "Shari Cuchiara! She's now the target of a nationwide movement called 'Mad Monkies Against Shari Cuchiara'!"
(RITA) "Okay. Our next mystery is a brother/sister duo. The guy has gone on to the NBA, and the girl is very famous for her work in films. Her sports equipment company, which manufactures knee pads, elbow pads, etc., gives her added income that allows her to live comfortably on her ranch."
(AMY) "There's only one brother sister duo in our class, and the clues could only describe Matt and Bev Etheridge! She was never rowdy, and she spent most of her time trying to reform her "party animal" brother!"
(RITA) "There were two people in our class who were devoted to the theater. The guy now owns a chain of shoe stores called "The Quasi Foot", and the store emblem is a bronze of Teri Hedrick's leather shoe. His most famous role was "Quasimodo" in the Hunchback of Notre Dame. The girl we are discussing is in many Broadway hits. She goes by the stage name "Miss Marie" and says that Miss Piggy has always been an inspiration to her."
(AMY) "The guy must be Mike Foy. We all knew from watching him practice at noon that "Quasimodo" would someday be his claim to fame! The girl is everybody's buddy, Cheryl Notschaele. I just caught her last play, "CatWoman", and it was great!"
(RITA) "You're doing well. Now, this girl won quick popularity across the state of Iowa by using her CB handle "Katy-did", and is now a part-time nurse. In her spare time she has the responsibility of interviewing men who might appear on Harlequin covers."
(AMY) "I didn't know "Katy" really "did!" Kathy Lane has a job any woman would want!"
(RITA) "These next girls are leaving their marks in Princeton. One spent a lot of time at the Apollo Theater and finally decided to take it over. Now she can afford to vacation every winter at the beach with her theater employees. The other girl has a husband who took over the "Sullivan's" store, and a daughter who is carrying on her mother's tradition of roaming the halls and never getting caught!
(AMY) "Teri Hedrick — the 'Don Saletzki' of women — runs the Apollo. Someday I plan to publish her grasshopper book. Pat and Eleen Sullivan have put employee parking stalls at their store so the ink won't run in the rain when "hoodlums" put notes on their car!"
(RITA) "This next couple of girls are together because they've syndicated a "pumpkin-borrowing" ring that operates the Bureau County area. One girl has married a man who needs a lot of help, and the other one has recently patented a seat-belt for the hood of cars!"
(AMY) "Tammy Sugars was good at helping people, and we all know that Trudy Gerbitz was great at making money from "dares!"
(RITA) "Our next mystery is a trio of guys. Two of them are big-time hog farmers who work 5000 acres each and make millions. Each of them bought 1/3 of our third guy's Illinois division of Anheuser-Busch. Each year part of their acreage is set aside to grow barley for the "Barley-Pop" their company produces."
(AMY) "Rob Hix, Pete Christensen, and Joe Roush. Pete and Joe occasionally co-host a local radio program, "The Deep Green South," and help out the "Sleaze Band."
(RITA) "There are only a few more graduates left. Our next mystery alumnus is also a farmer, but he's special because he is a BELGIAN farmer. He admits that he mostly grows hops, and on the side he has a line of Health Spas. The girls' locker-rooms are specially equipped with unnoticeable holes. He calls his spas the 'Peeping-Tom Clubs'.
(AMY) "It's amazing how the strangest things can carry over into your life after you graduate! That has to be Robert DeBrock!"
(RITA) "There are only two more guys from our class left. Both being friends of John McReynolds, he hired them (after a few test runs) to be in charge of the PBR distillery of his company."
(AMY) "Terry DeSkeere and Frank Madsen, of course! They never complain when they're asked to work over-time!"
(RITA) "Down to the final two class members! These two girls are basically unforgettable. They had a double-wedding and they both reside in Morrison. Their husbands own huge farm operations. One girl spends her free-time chauferring her friends to rock concerts, while the other girl is more content to spend all of her time at home with her many kids!"
(AMY) "The car Adri Rombouts used for concerts had a peculiar CB antenna decoration that made it infamous in Iowa! I hear Sue Hunt named her youngest kid "Shunt" and is already teaching her to 'hit-the-floor' properly!"
(RITA) "Our class was small, but compensated with our ability to create great memories! Well, you did it! That makes you our Grand Prize Winner! We're giving you a buffet dinner and reunion for our entire class at the Sheraton in New York City — all expenses paid!
(AMY) "That's fantastic! But, how are we going to get them all there at the same time?"
(RITA) "Easily. One, two, three "
(RITA AND AMY) "PARTY!!!"

Class Of 1983

Wills

I, Julie "Ju Bee" being of distilled mind and 90 proof body, will to Michelle Foy a.k.a. Mickey Fu, the town of St. Louis since St. Louis beats out Milwajkee in every which way, shape, and form. To whoever took the three tokens, Valentine pin, strawberry lip gloss, and 75¢ from my locker, a broken face to go along with them. To my "sis" Tammy Sugars, a psychiatric degree and a million boyfriends who need her help.

I, Pete Christensen, being of demented mind and unused body, will ¼ of my share of Milwaukee to the infamous "Buckwheat" Jacobson and the other ¼ to David Anderson who I hope will come to loosen up his elbow upon inheriting this responsibility. I also will to every faculty member and student of MHS, a copy of Coach "Mr. Adjustment" Sharkey's pamphlet entitled 101 Things That Are a Total Crime.

I, Shari Cuchiara, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will to Rita Peterson a tape of me saying, "Oh, son of a gun!" and "Fine bunch of friends I have here!" To Laura Moore, a month away from her grandparents and a trip to Japan to see our family. To Rhonda VanMeter, a secret dressing room in PE and to stay out of those ditches we got in. To Susie Hunt, $50 to give Marvin for gas to come see her in Manlius. To Cheryl Notschaele, all the gum wrappers in the world. Finally, to the Class of '83, all the luck in the world!!

I, Robert J. DeBrock, being of demented mind and abused body, due hereby will to Mark Miller my ¼ of the City of Milwaukee. To Jennifer Hansen the letter "A".

I, Terry DeSkeere, hereby will Laura Moore my ability to "cruise" in Princeton during the weekend.

I, Amy A. Ericson, being of questionable mind and body, do hereby will to Sandy Lootens the ability to stay calm during speech tournaments and a large bottle of Pepto Bismol. To Kathy Lane I leave all of my Harlequins. To Teri Hedrick I give permission to go to lunch with Gwern. To Rita Peterson, my love, respect, and my LTD II.

I, Beverly Ann Etheridge, hereby will to Kathy Lane and Amy Ericson a life long supply of Harlequin Romance books. To Tammy Sugars, the ability to control anger. To Trudy Gerbitz, to be able to back up in Happy Joe's parking lot in the rain without hitting another car. To Tina Sugars, to be able to keep her mouth shut for one minute.

I, Matthew S. Etherdige, do hereby will to Dave Anderson my "Secret" recipe for delicious popcorn at games. To Brian Geiger, my ability in shop so that he can make better trains. To my brother, Carl, the five inches in height willed to me by Todd Polte last year for next year's basketball team and 20 more pounds for next year's football team.

I, Michael Foy, being of strange, abnormal, bizarre, irregular, and eccentric mind and chubby, paunchy, portly, stocky and stout body, will to Teri Jo Hedrick my feet. To Rita Ritina Victoria Peterson I, I will her my former dignified name — it's just too big for me to take to college. To Julie Burba her own designer jean label. Finally, to my sister I will my good looks, my great personality, my outstanding talent, and most of all my modesty because she lacks all of these herself.

I, Trudy Gerbitz, being of sound mind and body, hereby will to Michelle Foy a stock bond for 50% of Larry Maule so she can have fantasies over the other 50%. Also to Michelle I will my ability to get caught "borrowing" pumpkins and then getting off scott-free!! (Just in case she may need it.) Lastly, to Tina Sugars, I will my sandwiches so she doesn't ever have to eat peanut butter and jelly again.

I, Teri Hedrick, being of sound mind and body, ko hereby will Jeanna Hunt and John Daley a "Do Not Disturb" sign for next summer when I decide to comeover unexpectedly. To Rita Peterson and Amy Ericson, the willpower to restrain from picking on me for one day. Then maybe their innocent look would really be innocent!!

I, Rob Hix, being of corrupted mind and self-destructing body, will the following books to Mr. Kerley: 101 Combinations for Cars and Bugshields, and to Mrs. Hahne, the book entitled That's Sad.

I, Susie Hunt, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will to Renee Fordham and Jeanna Hunt the ability to sew with the turtle on (instead of rabbit) in sewing class so he keeps in practice. To Dana Doty and Catherine Christensen the ability to survive 5-liners in basketball practice next year. To Bonnie Michlig, my remaining fouls I had left over from basketball season that Mrs. Hahne wouldn't let me use (just in case you ever need them!!). Finally, I will the best of luck to next year's girls basketball team.

I, Katherine Lane, being of sound mind and body, will to Tina Sugars my favorite walk, the "Igor" walk. To my darling "Little" sister, I will all of her clothes back. To Tammy Sugars, a new accident and bulletproof car. To everybody else, absolutely nothing.

I, Frank Madsen, being of crazed mind and injured bod, will to this year's freshmen my basketball ability and my ability to stay out of trouble with Mr. Sharkey.

I, John McReynolds, being of sane state of mind and body hereby will the following things: first, my ¼ of Milwaukee to "Bu-wheat" Jacobson; to "Mole-man", I leave a book on How To Keep Your Nails Clean and Sharp; to Coach Sharkey, I leave a back scratcher.

I, Cheryl Notschaele, better known as Miss Marie, leave Sandy Lootens all the little talks on the speech bus. Be a good Listener!! Don't forget to write to the dudes from Streator, Also, to all the students at MHS, be nice to CATS and read Garfield — he has an inspiring outlook on life. As Mrs. Soames would say, "MHS is a perfectly lovely school." From the Oc'er.

I, Rita "Reet-Pete" Peterson, being of slightly demented mind and body, do hereby will to Ms. Brokaw one epizoon with an epicarp. To Julie Burba, one new can of red paint for the D.Q. To Kathy Lane, one box of "Katydids" (and she did, too!) To Susie Hunt, a "Shunt" shirt (while wearing it she must hit the floor every 3 steps). To Teri Hedrick, a bottle of potato-chip-scented perfume and my ability to not slide right out of car seats. To Amy Erickson, one huge gorilla tumbleweed and a desguise kit so she won't be recognized in Iowa and embarras us all!!

I, Adrienna Rombouts, being of sound body and not so sound mind, will Rita Peterson an anchove pizza and little brown bag. Also, to anyone who wants it, my brain that has been destroyed from all the years of school. And last, but not least, to Julie Burba, ner own "Burba Bear."

I, Joseph Roush, being of sound mind and poor posture, do hereby will the following: one Apple Computer and a book of codes and clues to Ms. Brokaw; to Mr. Dave Hahne, 101 good jokes in case "Bob" comes back and practices football with him and the guys.

I, Tammy Sugars, being of unstable mind and different body will to Trudy Gerbitz a trunk load of pumpkins and $50 — just in case. To John McReynolds and Julie Burba (sis), marker remover; to Jennifer Hansen, all the shoe strings in the world to untie; to Kathy Lane, an extra set of car keys and all the Kraft Macaroni and Cheese she can eat.

Florida — Finale To Senior's Year

Sunday, May 29 — We all left Manlius at 5 a.m. for O'Hare Airport. A few of us were nervous being on a plane for the first time, but once we saw how beautiful the view was, we calmed down. Arriving at Orlando, we settled in to our hotel and then left for Disney World for the evening.
Monday, May 30 — We went back to Disney World and the Epcot Center for most of the day. That evening we enjoyed a luau at the Polynesian Village where we were given shell necklaces, served dinner, and entertained by Hawaiian dancers and a sword dance.
Tuesday, May 31 — We had the entire day to spend at Disney World and the Epcot Center. One of the highlights of the Center was the World Showcase where there are miniature villages from different countries of the world. There were also many shops, cafes, and live entertainment.
Wednesday, June 1 — The Kennedy Space Center was visited early in the morning. We were taken on a tour, then left for Daytona Beach. By the time we left Daytona, most everyone had some degree of sunburn!
Thursday, June 2 — Today, the morning was spent at Sea World and the afternoon at Cypress Gardens. Later we checked in at the Dolphin Beach Resort in St. Petersburg. The Gulf of Mexico and a heated pool were out back, and most of us went to either one to spend some time.
Friday, June 3 — Busch Gardens was on the agenda for the morning and early afternoon. As it was hot again, the favorite ride was the Congo River Ride. Ten people were seated in a round raft and sent down rapids. Everyone got wet and a few "lucky" ones got soaked to the skin!! That evening we went to the Country Dinner Playhouse and saw "Arsenic and Old Lace." We were all happily surprised to find out the lead was being played by Randolph Mantooth of "Emergency" fame.
Saturday, June 4 — Today was a 'Free Day' for us. Some of us went shopping, some swimming, some layed out, and others slept. The day and evening were spent in different but enjoyable ways.
Sunday, June 5 — Home!!! The trip was quite fun but most of us were ready to go home. So far, we had been on a bus, plane, van, monorail, boat, train, race car, river raft, roller coaster cars, and other vehicles that are a blur in our minds. The trip went fast and each of us enjoyed ourselves in our own special ways.
